

The Grease Gator BEATS all competitors!

vs. the “Environmentally-Friendly” chemicals

vs. Mineral Spirits, the market leader

	Grease Gator	Microbial	Citrus	Mineral Spirits
Does the parts washer create air pollution?	NO , with 99.5% less VOC emissions than mineral spirits, the Grease Gator does not cause air pollution.	YES , low VOC emissions but HIGH CO ₂ emissions. CO ₂ is as bad as VOC emissions.	YES , California, has regulated d-Limonene as a VOC, but this status is currently being investigated.	YES , high VOC emissions. CA, IN, MN have banned use of mineral spirits to improve air quality. Other states will follow.
Does the parts washer create waste?	NO , the cleaning solution doesn't need replacement. And the purged oil can be reused and is not a waste.	YES , IL National Guard Camp Lincoln reports dumping their microbial reservoir every six months.	YES , used solution and filter waste must be handled as hazardous waste.	YES , dissolves the contaminant into solution. It must be replaced at intervals to maintain cleaning power by hazardous waste techs .
Is the parts washer safe for the workplace?	YES , no smell, no biodegradation, no bio-bugs, non-flammable, non-hazardous.	MAYBE , OSHA research shows that workers exposed to bacteria in industrial fluids increase risk of disease.	NO , Flammable. D-limonenes, the active ingredient, has strong fragrance which can be unpleasant.	NO , medical studies have shown that mineral spirits can cause lung disease and cancer. Workers have won lawsuits.
Can you operate the parts washer for less than $300 per year?	YES , one year supply of Grease Gator cleaning chemistry is $300 (or less with option plans).	NO , IL National Guard Camp Lincoln has to dump and add expensive microbial fluid at frequent intervals.	NO , fruit supply, weather, & politics can cause prices to rise quickly. Expensive waste handling service required.	NO , mineral spirits requires replacement at intervals by hazardous waste techs. High cost of this service makes rental a good deal.
Can you maintain the parts washer in less than 30 min/week?	YES , Purge oil twice a week, add gallon of water once a week, add cleaning solution every 90 days. Simple.	NO , many man-hours required to keep the bugs alive. Must develop Standard Operating Procedures.	YES , but at a cost. Complete fluid exchange required at intervals. One hour plus service by qualified technician.	YES , but at a cost. Complete fluid exchange required at intervals. One hour plus service by qualified technician.
Does the parts washer clean faster than mineral spirits?	YES , the Grease Gator cleans 57% faster. Customers attest to this performance. Never gets dirty.	NO , microbial cannot clean bearing grease, even after pre-cleaning. Bacteria also consumes surfactants.	YES , d-Limonene is a powerful cleaner. But similar to mineral spirits, it cleans good until it is dirty.	N/A
Which solution do you want to clean with? Photos taken after heavy cleaning over several day period. The Grease Gator Solution will remain this clean always.				